Broken Art Creativity Class

Program Description

Basic Sketching and Watercolor

Come learn what Broken Art is...join us in this unique program designed to help each participant discover their own personal artistic style. The class will learn the basic skills of sketching and watercolor while exploring various historical artists and their contribution to art. Through group collaboration, the members will blend creative ideas into a unique and personal piece of artwork using mixed medias, various textures and non-traditional approaches. During the six week session, students will complete at least one original work of art which will be matted upon completion. All art materials will be supplied by Good Shepherd.

Cost: $45.00 for the six week class, 1/30/08 – 3/5/08
All supplies included.

Location: Good Shepherd's Rehab Hospital
850 S. Fifth Street
Allentown, PA 18103
2nd floor, end of hall.

Times: 10:00 AM – 12:00 noon

Assistance will be provided throughout class for those who require additional help with participation in the art experience. Participants who need personal assistance for self-care are required to bring someone to help.
